

A5 Printed Seed Paper

Imagine gifting your clients or event attendees something far more exciting than a simple flyer.

Our A5 Seed Paper does just that—it transforms your brand into a living, blooming spectacle. Crafted with wildflower seeds, this seed paper is a direct mailer, an invitation, and a branded gift, all rolled into one incredible package. From trade shows to client appreciation events, make sure your brand doesn't just get noticed—it gets planted, watered, and blooms.

A truly game-changing approach to promotional materials, offering a memorable experience that speaks volumes about your eco-conscious brand.
